

February 22, 2010

For: Immediate Release

Re: Silver & Freedman celebrates 35 Years/Names New Managing Partner

Contact: Cherie Kerr (714) 550-9900

Cherie_kerr@kerrpr-execuprov.com

LAW FIRM OF SILVER & FREEDMAN MARKS 35-YEAR MILESTONE
WHILE NAMING NEW MANAGING PARTNER

Los Angeles Law Firm Also Names Two Additional Partners

Los Angeles, Calif. – Silver & Freedman, a well-established and highly-respected business law firm in Los Angeles, celebrates its 35-year anniversary this month, along with naming shareholder Barry M. Weisz as managing partner and adding two new partners, according to Weisz.

Offering clients a variety of legal services in a broad cross section of practice areas, Silver & Freedman elevated Samantha F. Spector and Daniel J. Katz to partner.

“Our growth has been steady and consistent since the firm opened its doors in 1975,” Weisz explained. “We look forward to continuing to serve those in the business community by offering them a full range of transactional and litigation services.”

Founded in 1975 by Perry Silver and Neil Freedman, a Century City Bar Association “Litigator of the Year” who continues to chair the Litigation Department, the firm has been a significant presence in Century City for the last three and a half decades. Weisz, who served as the Chair of the Business and Tax Department when he first arrived in 1999 until last year, currently handles cases related to business and corporate matters. Spector will continue to handle family law matters and Katz will serve clients in need of real estate guidance.

In his new post, Weisz will oversee 28 attorneys and a staff of about the same size. Weisz, 56, is the son of the late Judge Andrew J. Weisz of Beverly Hills.

Silver & Freedman is known for its diverse practice areas including business and corporate; employment and labor; estate and probate; family law; intellectual property; tax, litigation; mergers and acquisitions; product liability and tort; and real estate. The firm serves clients in a variety of industry specialties such as apparel; new media and technology; nonprofit organizations and foundations; food service and hospitality; consumer electronics; medical devices; and transportation.

Regarded as one of the most versatile and experienced law firms in Los Angeles, Silver & Freedman is located on the 19th floor of the east Century City tower building. According to Weisz, the firm will enjoy festivities marking its 35-year anniversary during a celebration with colleagues, friends and family. For more information on Silver & Freedman, visit www.silverfreedman.com.